

Propitiation: Jesus' Atoning Blood

1 Therefore, having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, (Romans 5:1)

A lamb with its hands bound, lying down in a dark setting. The lamb is the central focus, lying on its side with its head to the left. Its wool is white and textured, and its horns are visible. The background is dark, and the lighting highlights the lamb's form. The text is located in the bottom left corner.

PROPITIATION
THE REMOVAL OF GOD'S WRATH

God's wrath is justified!

Psalms 106:39

John 3:36

Hebrews 10:31

propitiation

The word propitiation carries the basic idea of appeasement or satisfaction, specifically toward God. Propitiation is a two-part act that involves appeasing the wrath of an offended person and being reconciled to him.

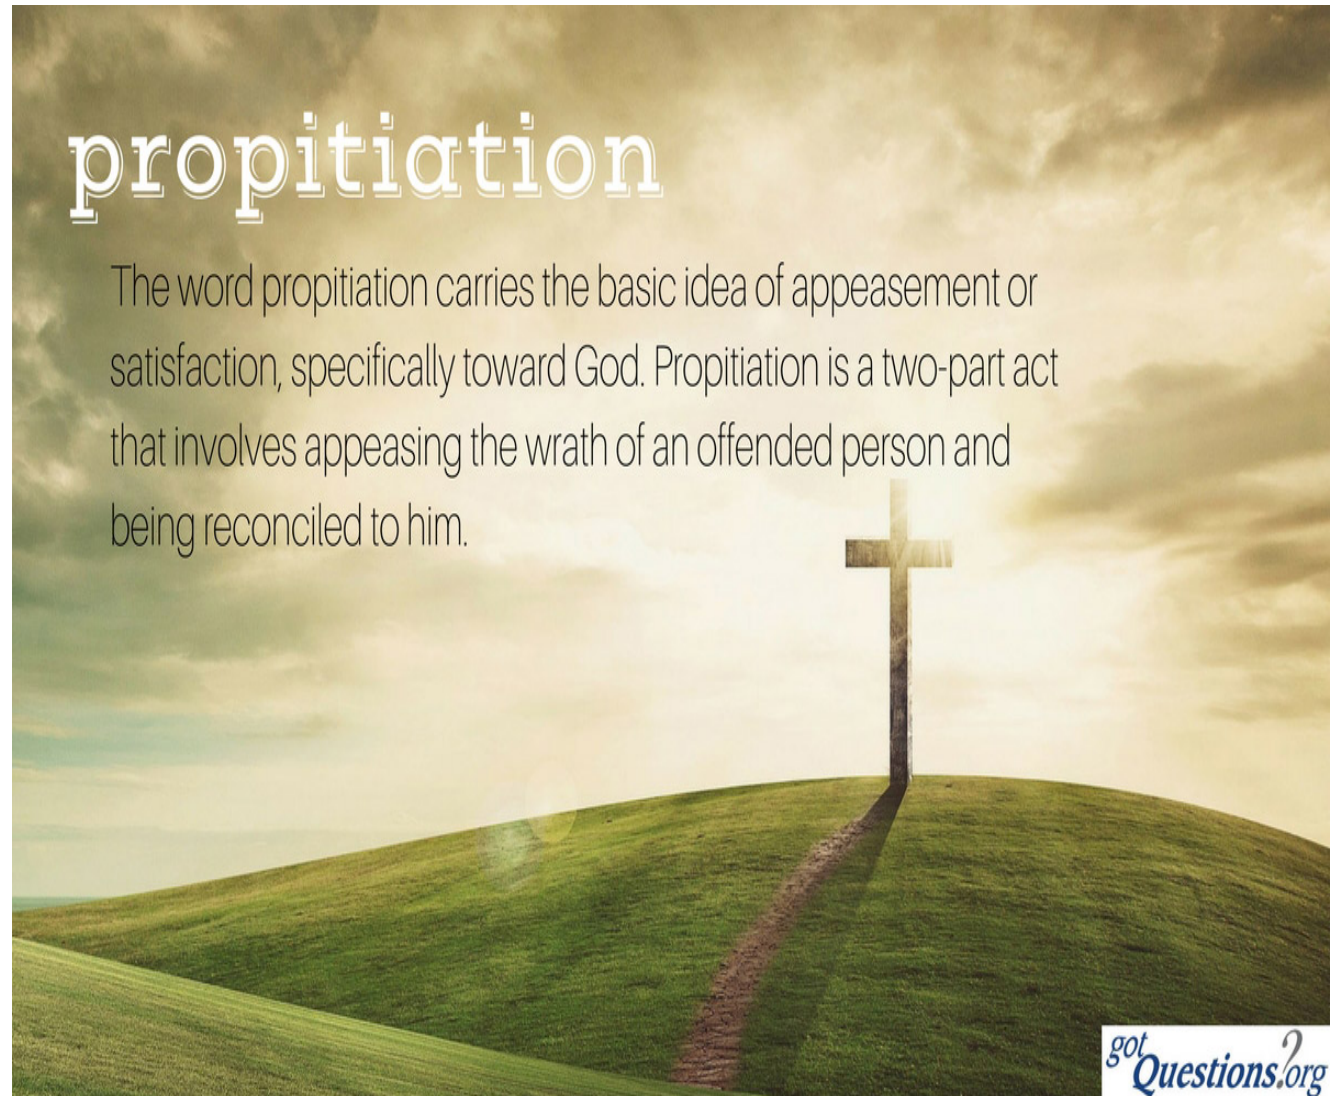

We must appease
His wrath or suffer
the consequences.

Atonement might be spelled at-one-ment to get an idea of its meaning.
