What is true
biblical faith?

How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? And how are they to preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the good news!”

So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.

Romans 10:14-15, 17

"What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister is poorly clothed and lacking in daily food, and one of you says to them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled," without giving them the things needed for the body, what good is that? So also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead."

James 2:14-17 (ESV)

A man with dark hair, wearing a blue and white plaid shirt, is seated in a wooden courtroom. He is leaning forward with his head resting on his clasped hands, appearing to be in prayer or deep thought. The background consists of dark wood paneling with horizontal lines. The lighting is dim, creating a somber atmosphere.

A black and white photograph of a person's hands holding a Bible. The Bible is held horizontally, and the spine is visible, showing the words "HOLY BIBLE" in gold lettering. The person is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved shirt. The background is dark and out of focus. Overlaid on the center of the image is the text "What motivates our faith determines our destiny!" in a white, sans-serif font.
