

Welcome to Worship

Sanford church of Christ

A stone cross stands in the foreground on the left, partially obscuring the text. The background is a stone wall with a window. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

For the Law, having a shadow of the good things to come,
and not the very image of the things,
can never with these same sacrifices, which they offer continually year by year, make those who approach perfect. Hebrews 10:1

Therefore let no one pass judgment on you in questions of food and drink, or with regard to a festival or a new moon or a Sabbath. These are a shadow of the things to come, but the substance belongs to Christ.

For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

Will you choose Judgement or Atonement?
