

Welcome

TO

WORSHIP

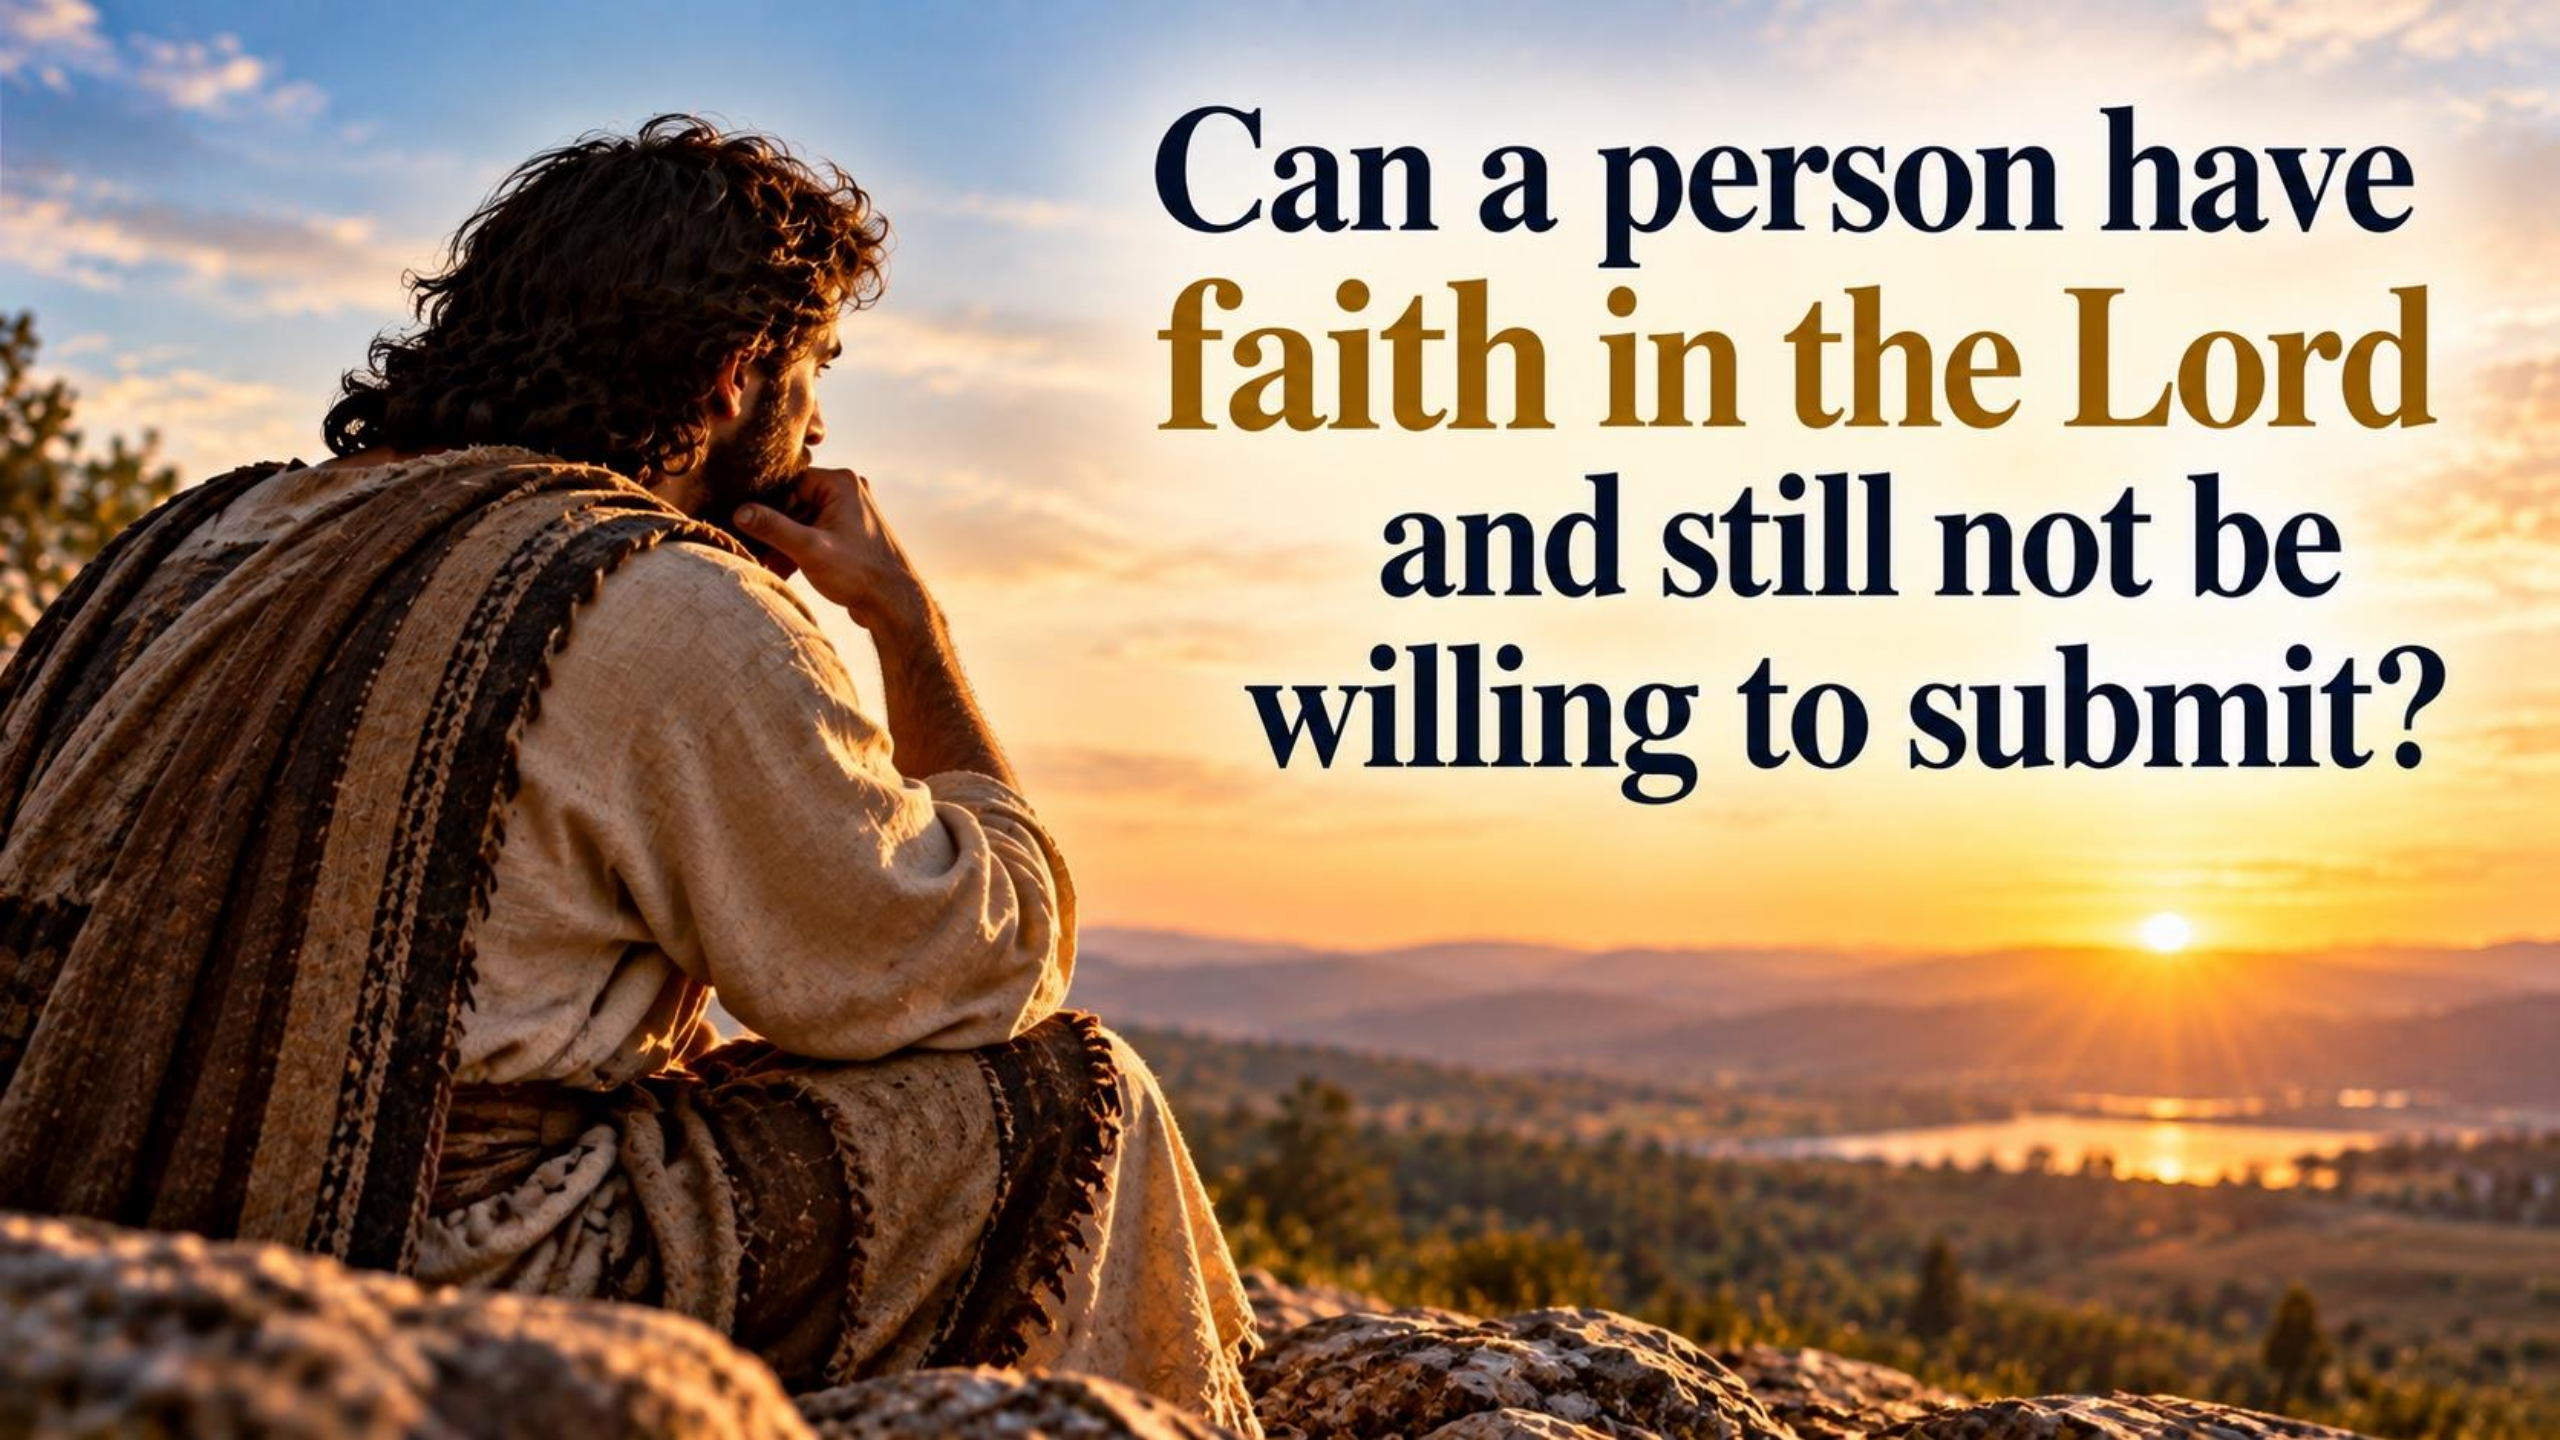

A cinematic photograph of Jesus with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a white robe with a brown sash, sitting on a rock and gesturing with his right hand towards a crowd. The crowd, seen from behind, consists of men wearing head coverings. They are gathered on a hillside overlooking a body of water and distant mountains under a golden sunset sky. The text "Luke 6:46 (ESV)" is overlaid in the top right corner.

Luke 6:46 (ESV)

“Why do you call me
‘Lord, Lord,’ and not do what I tell you?”

A man with long, curly brown hair and a beard is shown from the back, sitting on a rocky ledge. He is wearing a light-colored, long-sleeved robe with a dark, patterned sash. He is looking out over a vast landscape at sunset. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow over the scene. The landscape features rolling hills, a body of water, and a distant city. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds.

Can a person have faith in the Lord
and still not be willing to submit?

Faith That

Refuses

to Submit

(Exodus 32)

Why Do Believers Sometimes Struggle with God's Commands?

- Do I have to be baptized to be saved? (Mark 16:15–16; 1 Peter 3:21)
- Do I really need to assemble regularly with the church? (Hebrews 10:24–27)
- Why do we sing without instrumental accompaniment in worship? (Ephesians 5:19; Colossians 3:16–17)
- Why does Scripture distinguish the teaching and leadership roles of men and women in the assembled church? (1 Timothy 2:8–15; 1 Corinthians 14:33–35)

Faith That Humbly Submits to the Lord

James 4:6 – 10

A full-page background image depicting Jesus in Gethsemane. Jesus, with long brown hair and a beard, is kneeling on a rocky hillside. He is wearing a white tunic and a red sash. His hands are clasped in prayer, resting on a large, mossy rock. To his left is a large, gnarled olive tree. In the background, the city of Jerusalem is visible at dusk, with its walls and towers illuminated by warm lights. A full moon hangs in the dark blue sky. The overall mood is solemn and contemplative.
